The most versatile ultrasound machine for bovine veterinarians

Easi-Scan gives you a high quality ultrasound image, increasing diagnostic accuracy at any stage of the cow reproductive cycle. Easi-Scan has numerous other applications, including equine musculo-skeletal and reproduction, plus back fat scanning in sheep pigs and cows. It can also be used for non-reproductive applications.

Accurate diagnosis at any stage of the cow cycle

Easi-Scan simplifies your work. You see more detail with the linear probe, for example to determine insemination time and foetal sex or to scan early and late pregnancies. Making a precise diagnosis requires less effort and becomes a speedier operation.

Comfortable working

Easi-Scan is light. You carry it comfortably on your hip, so your hands are free and there’s no strain on your neck, shoulders or back. When used with the BUG google it allows great peripheral vision.

Excellent image quality

The scanner gives you an excellent field of view, with detailed image information. The 128 crystals probe produces 40 frames per second across 16 digital channels, so there’s no lag or image loss when scanning rapidly. That means less effort, time saving and less wrong diagnosis.
Visit our website for product in use video, full technical specifications and clinical learning materials.

We help you grow your skills with practical on-farm courses and the largest online learning centre.

You can rely on BCF. We’ve been in animal imaging for over 30 years, our products are made in Scotland, UK and supported by a strong network of more than 40 specialist veterinary distributors worldwide.

BCF because ...

We help you grow your skills with practical on-farm courses and the largest online learning centre.

You can rely on BCF. We’ve been in animal imaging for over 30 years, our products are made in Scotland, UK and supported by a strong network of more than 40 specialist veterinary distributors worldwide.

Viewing options and accessories

Bug Goggles | Smart Display | Remote Display | Carry Case
Firefly Goggles | Charging Case | Easi-Scan Grip | Charger
Wrist monitor | Easi-Scan app | Introducer | Gestational age app

Trapezoidal | Musculoskeletal | Backfat
Linear probe designed from the ground up, linear for detailed image (6 cm, 8 cm and 12 cm mode).

Probe is fixed and sealed for durability and less downtime caused by connection failures and dust/water penetration.

Four buttons. Easy to operate.

Detachable battery. Lasts up to 7 hours

Call +44 (0)1506 460 023 to arrange a demonstration or visit www.bcftechnology.com for more information.